VDP.BADEN IN SWEDEN

THE OPERA TERRACE, STOCKHOLM

A unique chance to taste German wine at its best: Producers of VDP.Baden, VDP.Mosel-Saar-Ruwer (Grosser Ring) and VDP.Mittelrhein will be showing a representative Portfolio of their wineries.

The vintners of Baden are Specialists for white and red Pinots. But since Baden extends over 400km from north to south - with a wide range of different Terroirs and local Traditions, you can also find great Rieslings.

With its cool climate, its Slate soil and the expert knowledge of generations: Riesling from Mosel, Saar and Ruwer has been famous for centuries. Delicate yet complex wines are the embodiment of this origin, achieving highest praises on the markets of the world.

Numerous types of slate and other soil formations offer deep-rooting vines, especially Riesling, ideal growing conditions. Thus allowing the vintners of the VDP.Mittelrhein to produce world-class wines in a beautiful and unique Landscape.
